MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE CONSTITUTION
TWENTY-SECOND AMENDMENT BILL, 2025

1. INTRODUCTION

This Bill seeks to amend the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (“the Constitution”), by providing that a former judge or person appointed in terms of Chapter 9 who was previously removed from office by the President in terms of the Constitution on the ground of either gross misconduct or misconduct, as the case may be, is not eligible to become a member of Parliament, a provincial legislature, or a Municipal Council.

2. OBJECTS OF THE BILL

The purpose of the Constitution Twenty-Second Amendment Bill, 2025 (“the Bill”), is to amend sections 47, 106 and 158 of the Constitution to provide that a former judge or person appointed in terms of Chapter 9 who was previously removed from office by the President in terms of the Constitution on the ground of either gross misconduct or misconduct, as the case may be, is not eligible to become a member of Parliament, a provincial legislature, or a Municipal Council.

3. CONTENTS OF THE BILL

- 3.1. Clause 1 proposes an amendment to section 47 of the Constitution to provide that a former judge or person appointed in terms of Chapter 9 who was previously removed from office by the President in terms of the Constitution on the ground of either gross misconduct or misconduct, respectively, is not eligible to become a member of Parliament.

- 3.2. Clause 2 proposes an amendment to section 106 of the Constitution to provide that a former judge or person appointed in terms of Chapter 9 who was previously removed from office by the President in terms of the Constitution on the ground of either gross misconduct or misconduct, respectively, is not eligible to become a member of a provincial legislature.
- 3.3. Clause 3 proposes an amendment to section 158(1) of the Constitution to provide that a former judge or person appointed in terms of Chapter 9 who was previously removed from office by the President in terms of the Constitution on the ground of either gross misconduct or misconduct, respectively, is not eligible to become a member of a Municipal Council.
- 3.4. Clause 4 provides for the short title and date of commencement.
