Amendment of Regulation 22

2. Regulation 22 is amended by the substitution for regulation 22 of the following regulation:

“22 Accreditation of Voter Education Providers

A natural or juristic person may apply to the Commission for accreditation to provide voter education for an election in terms of section 43(1) of the Act by completing [an application form substantially similar to Appendix 17 and delivering the completed form, together with any documentation in support of the application, to the Commission at its office in Pretoria] and submitting an online application for accreditation as a voter education provider on the Commission’s official website.”.

Amendment of Regulation 24

3. Regulation 24 is amended by the addition of the following subregulation:

“(4) Subject to subregulation (5), once the Commission decides the objections contemplated in subregulation (3), the disputed votes are opened in the presence of agents and the procedure set out in regulation 26 applies with such changes as required by the context.

“(5) If the Commission upholds the objection contemplated in subregulation (3), the disputed votes are not counted.”.

Amendment of Regulation 28C

4. Regulation 28C is amended —

4.1. by the substitution for paragraph (c) of subregulation (3) of the following paragraph:

“(c) the voter contemplated in subregulation (1) is allowed to mark the ballot paper or papers in secret and to place and seal them in an unmarked envelope which is in turn placed and sealed in another envelope marked on the outside with the voter’s name and identity number[;], and—

(i) the voting officers must take the marked envelope to the office of the presiding officer where a line must be drawn through the name of the voter on the list of approved special votes applications and through the name of the voter on the voters’ roll and marked “SV” next to the voter’s name.

(ii) in the presence of the agents, the marked envelope must be scrutinised and compared with the marked voters’ roll and the record of approved applications for special votes;

(iii) if no irregularity is detected that renders the special vote unacceptable, the marked envelope is opened, the unmarked envelope inside is removed and is placed in a sealed ballot box in use for that day of special votes at the voting station.”

4.2. by the addition after paragraph (c) of the following paragraphs:

“(cA) in respect of the voter contemplated in subregulation (2), the presiding officer must draw a line through the name of the voter on the list of approved special votes applications and through the name of the voter on the voters’ roll and marks “SV” next to the voter’s name; and

(cB) the voter is allowed to enter an empty voting compartment at the voting station, mark and fold the ballot paper in secret, and to place the ballot paper in a sealed ballot box in use on that day for special votes.”; and

- 4.3. by the deletion in subregulation (3) of paragraph (d).

Amendment of Regulation 28D
